

Training: Computer Based Training

KODAK Interactive Educational CDs

Description

A series of interactive, self-paced educational CDs and accompanying workbooks that cover a variety of topics related to motion imaging.

Benefits

Advantageous for videographers, cinematographers, camera assistants, directors, film students, and educators.

Programs available

- Color and Light in Motion Imaging CAT 179 0955
Provides a fundamental knowledge of color and light, describes how color images are captured in chemical and electronic imaging systems, and controlling exposure
- Nature of Film CAT 140 7832
Describes the art and science of motion picture film including the basics of image capture, processing, and sensitometry
- Motion Picture Business CAT 178 6490
Provides an overview of the filmmaking process, and explains the roles and responsibilities of the industry professionals
- The Art of Lighting for Film CAT 852 9513
Provides a fundamental knowledge of motion picture lighting types, principles, techniques, and applications used to produce a desired "look"
- What is Cinematography? CAT 899 8809
Provides a detailed description of the cinematographer's tools and their application in the art of filmmaking

New

- Creative Craft of Post Production CAT 847 9750
Provides a detailed description of the post-production process in the art of filmmaking
- Make it with Super 16 CAT 151 5816
Provides a detailed description of the technical and creative applications of 16 mm film, its production and post-production advantages, and why it is a viable capture option

Ordering Information

Contact your local Customer Service Representative or Kodak office for price and availability in your area.

For more information, visit: www.kodak.com/go/training

Kodak Motion Picture Services

Kodak is a trademark. © Eastman Kodak Company 2004