Wow your customers!

Speed, security, and satisfaction — at their fingertips

A lifetime of memories protected for generations in just minutes

Everything old is new again.

The main reason consumers want to buy is for the security—to know their pictures are now safe and will last for generations on a KODAK Picture CD. But there is something very powerful that happens when consumers see their pictures pop up on that KODAK Picture Kiosk screen. Their pictures are digital and new again—a great opportunity for your business!

The wow factor.

It's amazing to see the reactions. In fact the excitement is bit contagious. Make sure you place this compact powerhouse of a scanner right next to one of your busiest KODAK Picture Kiosks—so everyone can see it in action. Our testing shows that consumers definitely want to do the scanning themselves—in fact, they prefer it.
