

EASTMAN KODAK COMPANY
EQUAL EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY POLICY STATEMENT
41 C.F.R. Section 60-741.44(a); 60-300.44(a)

It is the policy at KODAK to provide equal employment opportunity to all persons. Our company, therefore, has made a commitment to equal employment opportunity through a positive and continuing affirmative action program. No employee or applicant for employment will be discriminated against because of race, color, religion (including religious dress and grooming practices), sexual orientation, gender, gender identity, gender expression, marital status, pregnancy (including childbirth, breastfeeding and related medical conditions), genetic characteristics or information, citizenship status, national origin, ancestry, age, physical or mental disability, medical condition, military or veteran status, or other characteristics/classes protected by federal, state and/or local law.

KODAK will recruit, hire, train and promote qualified individuals in all job titles, and ensure that all other personnel actions are administered without regard to race, color, religion (including religious dress and grooming practices), sexual orientation, gender, gender identity, gender expression, marital status, pregnancy (including childbirth, breastfeeding and related medical conditions), genetic characteristics or information, citizenship status, national origin, ancestry, age, physical or mental disability, medical condition, military or veteran status, or other characteristics/classes protected by federal, state and/or local law in accordance with Executive Order 11246, Section 503 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, as amended, and the Vietnam Era Veterans Readjustment Assistance Act of 1974, which require affirmative action to ensure equal opportunity in all aspects of employment. KODAK does not discriminate on the basis of national origin or citizenship status as provided under the Immigration Reform and Control Act of 1986.

To further implement these policies, KODAK will continue to:

- A. Base decisions on employment so as to further the principle of equal employment opportunity;
- B. Ensure that promotion decisions are in accordance with the principles of equal employment opportunity by imposing only valid requirements for promotional opportunities;
- C. Ensure that all personnel actions (including but not limited to compensation, benefits, transfers, hire/rehire, company sponsored training, education, tuition assistance, social and recreational programs) are administered without regard race, color, religion (including religious dress and grooming practices), sexual orientation, gender, gender identity, gender expression, marital status, pregnancy (including childbirth, breastfeeding and related medical conditions), genetic characteristics or information, citizenship status, national origin, ancestry, age, physical or mental disability, medical condition, military or veteran status, or other characteristics/classes protected by federal, state and/or local law.

Employees and applicants shall not be subjected to harassment, intimidation, threats, coercion, or discrimination because they have engaged in or may engage in any of the following activities:

- A. Filing a complaint;
- B. Assisting or participating in an investigation, compliance evaluation, hearing, or any other activity related to the administration of affirmative action and equal opportunity regulations;
- C. Opposing any act or practice made unlawful by affirmative action and equal opportunity regulations, including Federal, State, and local law;
- D. Exercising any other right protected by affirmative action and equal opportunity regulations.

MARY ANNE DETMER, DIRECTOR, TALENT MANAGEMENT, VP, HUMAN RESOURCES has been designated EEO Coordinator and is responsible for compliance with State and Federal equal employment opportunity laws, and for implementing the affirmative action program, including equal employment practices, monitoring, and internal reporting.
